PROJECT MILESTONE SUMMARY

Frontend & User Interface Design

This milestone focused on designing and implementing an intuitive user interface that allows seamless interaction with the system. Using Streamlit, the frontend was developed to support PDF uploads, question inputs, and real-time display of AI-generated answers with referenced content. Emphasis was placed on creating a clean, responsive, and user-friendly layout that enhances accessibility and overall user experience.